TROJANS HOST FINAL WEEKEND SERIES OF DAC

CONFERENCE PLAY: The Dakota State University volleyball team will host their final home matches at the DSU Fieldhouse this weekend. The Trojans will host Black Hills State Friday night and South Dakota School of Mines Saturday night.

The Trojans are in a three-way tie for sixth place with Valley City State and Mayville State. Black Hills State is second with a 8-3 conference record. SD School of Mines is fourth with a 5-6 record.

SENIORS NIGHT-FRIDAY: The Dakota State University volleyball team will be recognizing seniors Rachael Jensen and Vicki Kaul Friday night.

In Jensen's four year career at Dakota State, she records 1,109 kills. She is third in the Trojan volleyball record book for career kills. Jensen also recorded 1,416 digs and 133 total blocks. Rachael is the daughter of Mark and Jonda Jensen of Beresford, S.D. She is a Biology major at Dakota State University.

Kaul had been with the Trojan volleyball team for five years. She was a medical redshirt for one year. Kaul records 427 career kills and 171 total blocks. She also records 245 digs. Vicki is the daughter of Vernon and Donna Kaul of Springfield, S.D. She is a Graphic Design and Web Development major at Dakota State University.

DAC WEEKLY RANKINGS: The Trojans dropped two spots to seventh in the DAC's weekly rankings. DSU went 0-2 with losses to Minot State and Dickinson State last week.

Jamestown had clinched #1 seed for the DAC Postseason tournament, which begins on Saturday, Nov. 7. Black Hills State is second followed by Dickinson State third, SD School of Mines fourth, Minot State fifth and Mayville State sixth. Valley City State is eighth.

COSTUME NIGHT-SATURDAY:

Head Coach Amy Veenhof

Amy Veenhof is in her first year as the Trojan Volleyball Head Coach. Veenhof has been the assistant volleyball coach at Northern State University since 2005.

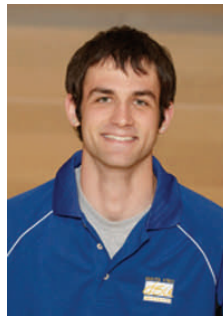

Prior to Northern State, Veenhof was the head volleyball coach at Si Tanka University in Huron. Along with her coaching duties at Northern State, Veenhof worked with area high school athletes for club play and volleyball camps. She was the assistant compliance officer at NSU where she monitored NCAA rules and regulations. She also monitored student-athlete eligibility.

Veenhof is a graduate of Si Tanka University with a degree in elementary education. She will graduate from NSU this December 2009 with a master's degree in education, teaching, and learning with an emphasis in health, physical education and coaching.

A student-athlete at Si Tanka, Veenhof was an Academic All-American volleyball and softball player.

Assistant Coach Scott Ciukowski

Scott Ciukowski is entering his first year as Assistant Volleyball Coach at Dakota State University. He comes from Clarke College in Dubuque, Iowa, where he graduated in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in Sports Management and Minot in Kinesiology. He played for Clarke College men's volleyball team and was named the team captain for two years. In 2006, Ciukowski was a member of the Coleman Division Champion Team. He had set school records in most matches played (30) and is 10th all-time for service attempts with 378 in 2007.

During his college tenure at Clarke College, he coached the Intensity Girls' Volleyball Clubs 17-years-olds (2007) and 18-year-olds (2008) in Dyersville, Iowa. In addition Ciukowski coached the freshmen 'A' and sophomore teams at Maquoketa High School.

Most recently, Ciukowski coached the girls' 16-year-olds and 18-year-olds at The Sports Academy. He also coached the boys' 16-year-olds and 18-year-olds volleyball teams. He coached at Notre Dame High School boys' junior varsity team and went 10-4 last year.

Ciukowski is originally from Park Ridge, Ill. and will reside in Madison, S.D. He is the son of Joe and Cathy Ciukowski.
