Head Coach Amy Veenhof

Amy Veenhof is in her second year as the Trojan Volleyball Head Coach. Veenhof has been the assistant volleyball coach at Northern State University since 2005.

Prior to Northern State, Veenhof was the head volleyball coach at Si Tanka University in Huron. Along with her coaching duties at Northern State, Veenhof worked with area high school athletes for club play and volleyball camps. She was the assistant compliance officer at NSU where she monitored NCAA rules and regulations. She also monitored student-athlete eligibility.

Veenhof is a graduate of Si Tanka University with a degree in elementary education. She will graduate from NSU this December 2010 with a master's degree in education, teaching, and learning with an emphasis in health, physical education and coaching.

A student-athlete at Si Tanka, Veenhof was an Academic All-American volleyball and softball player.

Assistant Coach Max Curran

Max Curran is entering his first year as an assistant coach. He was a student assistant coach for the Trojans in 2009.

Curran, native of Jefferson, S.D., spent his first two years of college at Minnesota State University in Mankato, Minn. He was a member of the men's club volleyball team at Minnesota State-Mankato. Curran played as outside hitter and middle hitter that finished runner-ups in the conference and qualify to the national tournament for two years.

Curran transferred to Dakota State University in 2009. He is pursuing a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science and plans to graduate in December 2011.

Max is the son of Kelly and Carol Curran.
